PROGRAMME MONTH: JULY

As a multicultural country, Malaysia's cultural diversity provides a unique encounter for visitors who want to experience multi-ethnicity and multiculturalism in practice. Understanding multi-ethnicity from the perspective of human development will provide a better appreciation of how a diverse society functions. This summer programme will expose students to the importance of Malaysian social structure and the social institutions in Malaysia. Participants will develop their knowledge, understanding and also learn more about Malaysia's social and cultural make-up through human ecology.
